Ohio Unit Plan of Action

The Legislative Program provides information and assistance to American Legion Auxiliary members to advocate for the legislative agenda of The American Legion.

LEGISLATIVE

What is this program, and why do we have it?

The Legislative Program provides information and assistance to American Legion Auxiliary members to advocate for the legislative agenda of The American Legion.

What Can You Do?

1. Encourage and empower members to be more knowledgeable to take action on The American Legion's legislative priorities.

Ideas:

Member

- Subscribe to the Legion's Legislative Action Alerts to receive notification when they call on all Legion Family members to take immediate action on a topic. Visit www.capwiz.com/legion/mlm/signup to subscribe. Report to your unit chairman when you have done so.
- Subscribe to the Legion's Legislative Update to stay informed on veteran and military legislative issues. Report to your unit chairman when you have subscribed.
- Order a copy of the ALA Legislative Advocacy Guide through your unit or your department headquarters and follow the suggestions it contains to help build legislative awareness in your community. The guide can also be downloaded from www.ALAforVeterans.org.
- Visit the Legion's legislative website, www.legion.org/legislative, to keep current on legislative priorities. The site also contains the Legion's legislative priority sheets and point papers, available for download.
 - The priority/drop sheets outline the Legion's priorities and you can "drop" these in your elected official's office.
 - The point papers provide more information on the issue and the Legion's position.
- Actively post The American Legion's legislative priorities on social media.
- Identify your U.S. representative and two U.S. senators and build a relationship and rapport with these individuals and/or members of their staff.
- Subscribe to e-newsletters of your elected officials to monitor what they consider to be their priorities and to make sure that veteran/military and national security issues are among them. Follow them on social media as well. (See each elected official's website for details how to sign-up and social media links).
- Connect with other civic organizations to communicate The American Legion's legislative priorities for potential support and membership opportunities.
- Attend local informational town hall meetings to become better informed and to network with other community and civic organizations.
- Attend department and/or legislative meetings and activities.
- Meet with state- and national-level public officials to discuss issues facing veterans, servicemembers and their families. If possible, attend meetings with other Legion Family members.
 - Remember, we're putting a face on legislative topics. We can share the human reality on how issues affect veterans, servicemembers and their families.

Ohio Unit Plan of Action

- Complete the Legion's Congressional Meeting Report Form following any meeting with your U.S. representative, U.S. senator and/or their legislative staff members. Visit www.legion.org/legislative/aar to complete the form.
- Let your department Legislative chairman or department president know if you have a personal or professional relationship with a U.S. representative and/or U.S. senator that serves on the Veterans Affairs committees or a member of his/her legislative staff and that you'd be willing to participate in the ALA Veterans Affairs Legislative Mini-Council. Each of these members should be willing to contact the representative, senator or staff member when called to action by the Legion on an issue.

Unit

- Order and distribute the ALA Legislative Advocacy Guide from your department headquarters and distribute to members.
- Hold a unit meeting to go over the steps outlined by the ALA Legislative Advocacy Guide and discuss the legislative priorities.
- Invite a staff member of your U.S. representative and/or senator to a unit meeting so he/she can explain the best way to contact the official.
- Include legislative priorities in unit communications (social media, newsletters).
- Work with your Legion counterpart to make arrangements for Legion Family members to meet with respective Congressional delegation while on recess and in home districts.
- Choose a different legislative priority each month and allow time at each unit meeting for members to draft letters and communicate the importance of legislation related to veterans and their families. Watch for Legislative Action Alerts for any pressing priority.
- Invite your department chairman to a unit meeting to explain how the department initiates legislative advocacy and how each unit can play a role.
- Work with your Legion Family to host a "Meet the Candidate" night. Make veterans/military issues the primary topic for discussion. (See the How To Sheet for details).
- Order the ALA Legislative Advocacy Guide and distribute to each unit. Provide information on how members can order their own copies of the guide through their department. The guide can also be downloaded from the Legislative page on www.ALAForVeterans.org.
- Encourage members to subscribe to the Legion's Legislative Action Alerts to receive notification when they call on all Legion Family members to take immediate action on a topic. Visit www.capwiz.com/legion/mlm/signup to subscribe.
- Encourage members to subscribe to the Legion's Legislative Update to remain informed about current legislation activities on Capitol Hill. Visit www.legion.org/enewsletters to subscribe.
- Encourage all Legion Family members to complete the Legion's Congressional Meeting Report Form following all meetings with U.S. representatives, senators and/or their legislative staff members. Visit www.legion.org/legislative/aar to complete the form.
- Visit the Legion's legislative website, www.legion.org/legislative, to keep your units and members current on our legislative priorities. The site also contains the Legion's legislative priority sheets and point papers.
 - The priority/drop sheets outline the Legion's priorities and you can "drop" these in your elected official's office. Printed color copies can be requested by email to walexander@legion.org. Be sure to include the quantity you are requesting and your contact information.
 - The point papers provide more information on the issue and the Legion's position.
- Encourage Auxiliary members to attend the annual Washington DC Conference, which includes legislative training sessions, opportunities to visit members of Congress and the National

Ohio Unit Plan of Action

Commander's Testimony, an address by The American Legion National Commander to Congress' Veterans' Affairs committees.

- Members should be sure to attend the "Know Before You Go" session, a presentation from the Legion's legislative division on the priorities.
 - Members should be sure to attend the Commander's Call, a joint American Legion Family presentation which includes the detailed information of the Legion's legislative priorities.
 - Work with your Legion counterpart to make arrangements for members of your department to meet with respective Congressional delegation in conjunction with the Washington DC Conference.
- In collaboration with your Legion, coordinate days for the Legion Family to storm your state capital.

Legislative Reporting

Mid-Year Reports

Mid-Year reports reflect the program work of units in the department. Each department Legislative chairman is required to submit a narrative report by January 5, 2017, to the division Legislative chairman at her address found on the front page of this program Plan, plus copy the national Legislative chairman. Each unit is requested to send a Mid-Year report to Colleen by December 30, 2016.

NATIONAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL INFORMATION SHEET

The American Legion Auxiliary's National Legislative Council serves as a complimentary council to The American Legion's National Legislative Council. Both councils are called upon by The American Legion to advocate on behalf of veterans, service members and their families.

Each member of the council is tasked with serving as a liaison between the Legion/Auxiliary and a member(s) of Congress. Each nominee should be on friendly terms (preferably have a personal relationship) with either the member of Congress or one of their staff members, so that she can communicate, either by letter, email, phone or in person the priorities of The American Legion.

Department Presidents use this form to make nominations for the Auxiliary's National Legislative Council. Signing this form indicates that (a) you have discussed this appointment with the member and (b) she is comfortable with the responsibilities. This information is submitted to the National Legislative Committee for review prior to appointment to the National Legislative Council.
