CHAPLAIN

Congratulations on your election or appointment as Chaplain of your Unit, County, or District. You will find the office of Chaplain to be a most rewarding experience. Serving as Chaplain can be such a source of joy and deep satisfaction. One very important thing to keep in mind is that the American Legion Auxiliary does not promote any one religion. Therefore, we must not offend anyone by promoting our own religion. Just as our military is made up of men and women of all faiths, we must remember that our Unit, County or District may have members of a faith other than our own. Let us work to preserve our religious freedom. Our veterans fought to keep our Nation strong and free – honor them by regarding each person's choice of prayer.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF AN AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY CHAPLAIN

The chaplain should attend all meetings and have an opening and closing prayer at each meeting. These prayers may come from any source: Reflections in the quarterly Auxiliary magazine, www.ALAforVeterans.org, self-composed prayers, or those found elsewhere.

As a chaplain, the most important thing for you to remember is that the American Legion Auxiliary does not promote any one religion. We must not offend anyone by promoting our own religion.

Suggested activities:

- Reporting the names of members who are ill and sending them cards
- Sending sympathy cards to family members. If possible, visiting the funeral and doing a memorial service for the deceased member.
- Being in charge of religious services for the unit.
- Visiting members and veterans in nursing homes or those who are shut-ins.
- Keeping in contact with Gold Star Families and remembering them on holidays.
- Volunteering at community projects.
- Making a prayer book or devotional book. In doing this, encourage member participation.

Ceremonies may be found in the Manual of Ceremonies of American Legion Auxiliary

Duties of the Chaplain

- 1) Attend all meetings and have an opening and closing prayer.
- 2) Report names of members who are ill or shut-in at meetings.
- 3) Send sympathy cards to the family who has lost someone and if possible, visit the funeral home; ask if the family would like an Auxiliary service or dinner. It is the Unit Chaplains responsibility to have a resolution of respect available for the family of a deceased Unit member. The Chaplain will coordinate with the Unit Membership Chairman to ensure a membership data form is completed and sent to Department.
- 4) Be in charge of religious services for your Unit, such as draping the charter or performing Memorial Services.

Ohio Unit Plan of Action

- 5) Visit members and veterans who may be shut-in or in nursing homes/hospital – make a simple prayer bookmark or card they can keep comforting them.
- 6) Keep in touch with Gold Star mothers; remember them during the holidays.
- 7) Send cards to members and their families in the case of illness, loss, or hard times.
- 8) Incorporate music into the Chaplain's program whenever possible.
- 9) Report deceased members names, date of death, and info to the Department Chairman.
