PUBLIC RELATIONS

Get Involved

Purpose: The purpose of the Public Relations Committee is to establish and maintain a positive public image of the organization by encouraging ALA members to be visible in their communities through branding and informing the public about the mission of the organization. Standing Rules #6, National Committees – Member/Organizational Support

Spread the word about the American Legion Auxiliary: A Community of Volunteers Serving Veterans, Military, and their Families.

- Maintain a social media account(s) for departments, divisions, and units.
- Build relationships with local media.
- Send press releases and letters to the editor to local media.
- Contact your local government for proclamations.
- Have an elevator speech.
- Familiarize yourself with the PR Toolkit.
- Take the ALA Academy courses related to PR:
 - ALA Branding and Why it Matters to Me!
 - Using Social Media to Your Unit's Advantage
- OHIO - Introduce and educate on "Brand Journalism". Brand journalism involves telling stories about an organization that makes readers want to know more. It means having conversations with your communities by giving them real and interesting stories they can relate to.
- OHIO - Utilize the tag line, "American Legion Auxiliary: A Community of Volunteers Serving Veterans, Military, and their Families," on all correspondence, posters, flyers, etc. Let them know what our organization is all about.

Encourage ALA members to be visible in their communities through valuable, distinct branding.

- Wear branded clothing, pins, etc., at events.
- Have visible branding at booths, tables, etc.
- Have American Legion Family brochures available at events (order through your ALA department office).
- OHIO - Establish a relationship with local and national media and social media outlets, service organizations, (Rotary, Exchange Club, Kiwanis, etc.), Chambers of Commerce, school districts, etc. A relationship is defined as engaging in verbal conversation with above listed representatives and sharing contact information with them.
- OHIO - Step-by-step instructions for creating a media contact list are included in the Public Relations and Tips for Volunteer Recruitment located under Resources at www.ALForVeterans.org.

Share the latest news from ALA volunteer national leadership and ALA National Headquarters.

- Distribute newsletters at all levels of the organization.
- Conduct video conferences (Zoom, etc.) with members.
- Inform members of national publications such as Auxiliary magazine, ALA blog, ALA eNews, ALA social media, etc.
